Welcome to The German Voice

from Dieter, Sigi, Margot, Monica and David

Willkommen zur German Voice!

The German Radio Committee came to EBI in 1977 to start broadcasting in the German language.

Ruth Scheffler presented the first German program on 5EBI on Sunday 1st May 1977 and she continued doing so for the next 38 years.

The German Voice has been one of the most active groups within the 5EBI community ever since.

Dieter Fabig took over as Chair of the group in 2005, steering the committee and members into the uncharted waters of the future.

Born in Breslau in 1944, Dieter was raised and educated in Hamburg. He arrived in Australia in 1968 and found work as a painter and decorator. He started his own business in 1973.

Dieter and his Finish-born wife, Saara, have three children.

Dieter was a member of EBI's Executive Committee for many years until standing down in 2012. He is also a host on International Rendezvous, one of EBI's most loved shows.

For his service to the Community Dieter was awarded a Medal in the Order of Australia (OAM) in 1989 and the Bundesverdienstkreuz in 1991.

Sigrid (or Sigi as she is better known) was born in Hamburg in 1947 and lived there until 1997 when she emigrated to Adelaide to be with her husband David, who also happens to be the Treasurer of The German Voice.

Born in the Melbourne suburb of Essendon and still a staunch supporter of that famous AFL Club, David matriculated in German and spent much of his early working life in Hamburg, which is where he met Sigi – the teenage penfriend who became his wife.

Monika came to Australia in 1971, marrying her husband Gerno who had migrated from Germany as a child with his parents.

Famous for her good German cooking (see her recipe on page 10), Monika commented "German cooking is what I know best."

Standing (l-r) Dieter Fabig, Monika Hein and David Brown. Margot Binkowski is seated. Absent: Sigi Brown.

Now retired and with a love of people and music, Monika felt it was only natural she do her bit for the German community in SA by entertaining them through The German Voice.

Last but definitely not least, a few words about Margot Binkowski, who joined The German Voice in 2012. Prior to that she had been a regular on International Rendezvous as one of Dieter's angels for some 12 years. Born in Austria in 1941, Margot migrated to Australia with her family when she was 13 years of age.

If you are interested in listening to The German Voice the weekly broadcast times are listed here. Tune in and enjoy. •

CHAIRPERSON'S MESSAGE

Welcome to the Spring edition of 5EBI's Transmission magazine.

Let me start with an apology to the many loyal listeners, groups and volunteers who were unable to receive 5EBI on their radio from 23rd June to late July. Lightning caused significant damage to the station's antenna, severely reducing our power and coverage. The long wait for replacement parts was very frustrating. We received on average, 15 calls a day from concerned listeners asking "Where have you gone".

Now that we are back to full power the number of listeners calling to say "welcome back – we hear you loud and clear", is wonderful. Many thanks to Andy our technician for all his efforts to get us back on air.

On Saturday 19th July, 300 people joined us at the Croatian Club for Let's Dance. It was fabulous with people dancing the night away to the music of Herbert Stauber.

This year's Radiothon will run from Monday 13th to Sunday 19th October with our traditional gourmet BBQ and entertainment. I urge everyone to participate to raise much needed donations for the station.

Planning for EBI's 40th Anniversary celebration on Sunday 1st March next year is continuing. Keep the day free as the festivities at the station will be something not to be missed. •

Introducing 2GoodSports

The entertainment level of Monday lunchtime has soared with the arrival on 5EBI of 2GoodSports, hosted by Phil (The General) Smyth AM and Rob (Poppy) Popplestone.

For almost two decades Phil Smyth was as much a part of the Australian men's basketball team as its green and gold uniform, making a significant contribution to the sport's development at both national and international levels.

Phil played his first game for the Boomers in 1977. As its captain for 14 years to 1994, he led the Boomers through four Olympic and five World Championship campaigns.

Having played for Sturt, West Torrens and Woodville-West Torrens in the SANFL, Rob Popplestone is passionate about Aussie Rules and sport in general. He has under his belt many years as a sports reporter on commercial television and radio.

In collaboration with Corey Wingard, Rob produced and presented Simply Football, a hugely popular weekly AFL TV show.

Poppy is quick to point out that while he has NOT got an AM and he has never played for Australia he, like The General, has great sporting contacts. •

Together these two good sports deliver 30 minutes of fun and breaking stories from 12:30pm Mondays on 5EBI 103.1 fm.

10 YEARS OF FOOTBALL PLUS

Perennial listener favourite, Football Plus achieved its milestone of a decade on-air in August

Stadium in the first round, you can expect some lively discussion about the local team's chances! •

Anchored by Dieter Fabig and Peter Tamm, this popular programme follows 2GoodSports from 1pm on Mondays.

It offers previews and reviews of football leagues around the world, including the AFL.

The 2014/15 Hyundai A League season, the tenth, gets underway on Friday 10th October. With defending Adelaide United facing Hyundai A-League Premiers Brisbane Roar at Suncorp

PROFILE

Station Manager Kym Green

Our Profile column introduces you to the people behind 5EBI. In this issue we chat with Station Manager Kym Green, the person who holds everything together.

How did you come to EBI?

Well that was more or less an accident.

I worked across the road for Greenhouse Media, my own company which is involved in community radio sponsorship.

One day the then Station Manager Hans Degenhard and his wife Brenda, who was doing the office work, asked me to fill in whilst they went on a holiday. On their return they decided it was time to retire, so they asked me to take over the manager's position. And here I am 10 years later.

Apart from Greenhouse Media, did you have previous experience working in the media industry?

Sure, ever since I left school I have worked within that industry. I started out with a job in the sales department of Channel 10, which was followed by several positions in commercial radio until I got involved with community radio.

Having worked in both commercial and community radio what do you enjoy most about community radio?

The main thing is the diversity. You meet and work with people from so many different backgrounds.

Everyone brings in their own experiences and views of the world.

It is a very intimate atmosphere, like in a big family.

What is your favourite memory of your 10 years at 5EBI?

That is a hard one as we've had so many good times, which I remember fondly.

I guess the best moment will be the finishing of the Broadcast training course and getting my Certificate. The only thing missing so far is my practical assessment.

Once I finish I may get my own program – just joking.

How do you see 5EBI's future?

That is a very good question, as the media industry has changed dramatically since the station was founded.

We certainly have to embrace these changes and incorporate them into our work without losing our uniqueness. That said we need to attract new groups and maintain our current ones.

A key aspect is the introduction of new technologies, to make the work for our volunteers easier.

Finally we have to find ways to become financially self-sufficient.

The Executive Committee and the staff are working together on a 5-year plan to achieve these things. •

Kym was interviewed by Stefanie Schöber.

Auditorium for Hire

This excellent City venue is ideal for Seminars, AGMs, Exhibitions and Celebrations.

The 5EBI Auditorium comfortably seats 70 people for dinner or caters for up to 120 for cocktail style functions.

Use of the kitchen, bar and audio equipment are included in the hire fee.

A night to remember!

Let's Dance, EBI's annual dance event, was held on the 19th of July.

Our listeners and guests enjoyed a night of music, fun games, good food and conversation as Herbert Stauber worked his magic, bringing everyone onto the dance floor.

Henk de Weerd returned from retirement to capture photos of the night. A few of his images are shown here, but you'll find many more on display in the 5EBI Auditorium and in the photo gallery section of our website: www.5ebi.com.au

Everybody agreed that it was a splendid evening and assured they will be back next year.

Special thanks go to the Croatian Club for providing their excellent venue free of charge, and to Kym Green for his fabulous organisation. •

Herbet Stauber kept the music flowing throughout the night making the dance floor a very busy spot!

Bottom right: Manuela and Anne-Marie – raffle ticket sellers extraordinaire!

New energy in Egyptian Radio

5EBI's Egyptian Radio group has a new committee with real energy and enthusiasm for engaging its listeners.

Social media is playing an important part in Egyptian Radio's efforts to reach a wider audience – locally, interstate and even overseas.

The committee has embarked on an ambitious plan to upload its weekly programme to both YouTube and Facebook.

After a modest start in which the first hour-long programme was uploaded in ten minute segments, they have now tamed the technology and are uploading programmes as complete audio files.

This move to broaden the broadcast base is helping the Egyptian Group to better understand the demographics, particularly the age groups, of its audience. Social media also provides a platform for listener feedback, which in turn helps with finetuning programming.

Constant improvement is important to Egyptian Radio and its President, Fouad Andrawos and Emil Andrawos are exploring how to broadcast live-to-air via YouTube. •

You can listen to the Egyptian Radio programme on 5EBI 103.1fm from 2pm on Saturdays.

Experience Qingdao, China

By Kerry Kenihan, 5EBI Travel Presenter

What has Adelaide in common with Qingdao (pronounced Chingdao) in north-east China's Shandong province, in addition to regional wines, parks, proximity to the sea and interest in the brewing and hearty imbibing of beer?

Both hold passion for the arts including acrobatics, kite-making, painting, crafts, song and dance drama. The latter will explode at Adelaide's Festival Centre on September 3 at the Australian premiere of Qingdao's Song and Dance Theatre's production Red Sorghum from the Nobel prize-winning novel of the same name.

The 2014 winner of China's Ministry of Culture's highest award for professional arts will be one of several events from Shandong province at Adelaide's OzAsia Festival from September 3 to 20. The festival, including diverse artistic expressions from other parts of Asia, will celebrate this year's new Sister-City relationship between Adelaide City Council and the City of Qingdao.

Adelaide City Council envisages a reciprocal focus on education, business and tourism with Qingdao, which is one of the top 10 liveable cities in China and where SA exports minerals, agricultural products, commodities and wine. Adelaide is the world's fifth most liveable city.

Visitors can be forgiven for believing they have stumbled into Bavaria on the Yellow Sea when entering Qingdao, meaning green island. It is set on several bays.

German troops arrived in the simple Chinese fishing village ceded to Germany in 1898 for 99 years. Developed as a naval base and coal station, with harbor facilities, electricity, rail, missions, a university and brewery, Qingdao was twice occupied by Japan but wrested back to become the province's biggest industrial producer.

The former factory-city's Christian churches, St Michael's cathedral Protestant church with clock tower and pockets of German red-roofed mansions were spared during Mao's cultural revolution.

Qingdao is now a resort destination with six sheltered beaches where, with buoys, shark nets, lifeguards, lifeboats and medical stations, swimming is safe but may be shared with about 100,000 others.

The best view is at dawn from the ocean as Qingdao awakes. From the Olympic Sailing Centre, (2008 summer Olympics host), windsurfing and sailing regattas are held.

The pier, lined with sellers and leading to a restored aquarium, carries the symbol of the famous original Tsingtao brewery, which is open for tours.

The August beer fest attracts millions of imbibers. Waterfront attractions include Polar Ocean World, a naval museum with two warships and a German-built lighthouse on a leafy promontory.

Of several glorious parks, Zhoughshan is largest with lakes, trees including cherry blossoms (best at April-May's fest,) walks, hiking trails, pavilions, a magnificent temple and botanical garden. It rises to lofty Taiping Shen, its TV tower accessible by cable car.

To be seen are a German prison, municipal, art, Heier Science and Technology musea and a 1903-built, extravagant German governor's residence, also a museum. He was sacked when Kaiser Wilhelm II received the construction bill.

Markets pop up everywhere. Cheapest and fascinating is Huangdao in the old town's core. Jimo Lu stocks French copies and local products. High standard hotels, attractions and beaches are in the Shinan district, one of four in this city of more than 3 million people. Renowned for its spas, half of Qingdao has been rebuilt since 1993. Restaurants and warrens of stalls offer meals and snacks, squid on skewers most popular.

Qingdao in Shandong, (the province being birthplace of Confucius about 2,500 years ago) is reached via Beijing and a second flight or high-speed bullet train. •

Tune in to Kerry Kenihan's TRAVEL TALK during Today with You with Ewart Shaw, Tuesdays from 11am.

Top: Qingdao is home to more than 3 million people.

Centre: Qingdao's picturesque and popular pier.

Above: St Michael's Cathedral is popular with locals and tourists.

Cover image: Qingdao residents enjoy a week of celebration for Chinese New Year.

German Chicken Salad

Supplied by Monika Hein
Presenter, Buntes Allerlei
Tuesdays, 4:00pm to 5:00pm

Germany is not only famous for its fabulous beer; it also has a wide variety of tasty and surprising foods.

You will find something delicious for everyone.

We can start with the abundance of different sausages before moving on to delicious potato recipes and finally arriving at the famous German cakes, like Black Forrest, Streusel, Berliners or Beestings and a huge selection of Christmas delights.

Today I would like to present a recipe
Germany is not so well known for:
Chicken salad.

This is a definite favourite for the warmer months. Chicken salad is easy to prepare and you will find as many variations as there are German families.

Here is my favorite. I hope you enjoy it as much as I do.

Serves 4

Preparation time: 20 minutes

Standing time: 3 hours

Ingredients

- 1 cold, cooked Chicken
- 1 small tin of Mandarin segments, or Pineapple pieces if preferred
(drink the juice – delicious!)
- 1 Red Onion (sliced)
- 1 Red Apple (washed & cored)
- 6 Sweet & Sour Gherkins
- 2tbsp Crème fraiche
- 3 or 4tbsp Mayonaise
- Juice of half a Lemon
- Salt & Black Pepper to taste
- Parsley to garnish

Method

1. Pull chicken apart, discarding skin, bones and any stuffing.
2. Dice chicken meat into bite size pieces & place in a mixing bowl.
3. Slice apple, coat with lemon juice to prevent discolouration then add to the mixing bowl.
4. Halve & finely slice the onion & add to mixing bowl.
5. Season with salt & black pepper.
6. Add crème fraiche & mayonaise then stir thoroughly & taste (add more seasoning or mayonaise if required).
7. Add mandarin segments & gently stir to combine.
8. Refrigerate for 3 hours to enable flavours to blend.
9. Serve in a salad bowl garnished with chopped parsley •
